PROFILE

I was once willing to spend $1,500 on rental for a 2 bedroom apartment because I wanted to expand from my tiny 1 bedroom. At the time I didn't know that the requirements to get an apartment were very similar to owning a house. Once someone explained this to me, my perspective on home ownership changed. Now I live rent-free in a 2 family home that I own, with the other unit paying my mortgage. I turned a liability into an asset. This is exactly why I want to educate you on the process of homeownership and how I can help you build generational wealth.
